Elizabeth Koele from MALHM with Volunteers: David Bartick, James Belle and Marcus Moe helped to move the items in ready for storage!

The new supplies arrived for the disaster cabinet. We are the keepers of the supplies for the surrounding historical societies that might have disasters. It has a generator, humidifier and lots of archival supplies.

We are in stages remaking the Veteran Project Web site. The current site has pictures of memorials from all over our county. The problem is that none were identified, Bruce Aiton had taken them and they were put on the site, he passed away before we could get the information we needed for locations. Sue Kujala and Lilah have taken on the quest of searching and finding all the memorials. This is on of three benches up a the Bigfork Veterans Memorials right along Highway 38 in town. We found that if its sunny out, we can't take pictures!

Deer River Chamber of Commerce made a big change in Deer River! The fish had started to deteriorate and was taken down. Fundraising started to replace the fish. After a couple of changes it was finally decided to put the muskies up. Now, its time to finish the landscaping around the fish. It's a big change, the fish is highly photographed by tourist traveling Highway 2!

“Murder up Nort” is the current title of the Escape Room. We will be changing it out soon. It's reported that it might be a “Doughboy” in the works. We might even share a recipe with everyone.....
